

Contact: Glenn Siegel, Ken Irwin, (413) 545-2876
www.fineartscenter.com/magictriangle

THE 2014 MAGIC TRIANGLE JAZZ SERIES PRESENTS:

The Marty Ehrlich Large Ensemble

The Magic Triangle Jazz Series, produced by WMUA-91.1FM and the Fine Arts Center at the University of Massachusetts, Amherst, concludes its 25th season on Thursday, April 17, at Bezanson Recital Hall, at 8:30p with a performance by The Marty Ehrlich Large Ensemble.

Since his first recording with the Human Arts Ensemble in 1972, Marty Ehrlich has emerged as one of the most thoughtful, varied and prolific instrumentalists and composers in creative music. He studied with Jaki Byard, Joe Maineri and Ran Blake at the New England Conservatory of Music, and in 1978 moved to New York. Since then, he has worked with many of the most ground-breaking musicians of our time, including Muhal Richard Abrams, Anthony Braxton, Julius Hemphill, and Yusef Lateef.

Ehrlich has also duetted with Anthony Cox, led his Dark Woods Ensemble, and recorded as a leader for Cecma, Sound Aspects, Muse, New World, and most often Enja.

Thank you for supporting the Magic Triangle Jazz Series over these 25 years. Tickets are $12/general public and $7/students and are available through the Fine Arts Center Box Office, 1-800-999-UMAS.

The Magic Triangle Jazz Concert Series is produced by WMUA-FM and the Fine Arts Center, and funded by the UMass Arts Council. Additional support from the UMass Hotel at the Campus Center.