

UNIVERSITY MUSEUM OF CONTEMPORARY ART
University of Massachusetts Amherst

“SHE SPEAKS/THEY SPEAK”

NARRATIVES OF OPPRESSION AND TRIUMPH, CELEBRATING THE VOICES OF WOMEN OF COLOR

Friday, April 28, 7:30 P.M. / Fine Arts Center lobby

In conjunction with the Women of Color Leadership Network at the Center for Women & Community, the University Museum of Contemporary Art invites women and non-binary/queer individuals of color to celebrate their diverse and dynamic narratives through storytelling.

We encourage submissions by self-identified women and non-binary/queer persons of color of all ages and backgrounds. Those interested in participating must submit a short description of a story/poem with a reading time no longer than 5 minutes.

Submissions are open to all Five College students and the larger community.

Please send submissions to ebekele@umass.edu.

Deadline for submissions: April 7, 11:59 P.M.

Co-sponsored by the Office of Student Affairs and Campus Life.

The UMCA gratefully acknowledges the Jordan Schnitzer Family Foundation for their support.