GATHER:

ANTIDOTES TO ISOLATION

Spring 2020
Chenda Cope and Avery Forbes
It’s been 5 weeks now and we are getting lonely.
Hey Siri,

Do I have coronavirus?
And we’re getting tired of faces on screens
We’re trying to be safe, but every study we read seems to contradict the last one.
In these moments,
we remember
what is important,
what we miss most,
and what things we need tools for.
What about eating dinner together?
What about hugs and holding hands?
WON'T YOU JOIN US?
Here’s how:

Come up with your own idea!
Post it to the hashtag
Picnic irl coming soon (we hope)
